

Foreword VII

Tim Jensen

Acknowledgements IX

Author Biographies x

Introduction: The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity 1

Lene Kühle and William Hoverd

Part 1

Theoretical and Methodological Issues

Introduction to Part 1 16

1 Religious Diversity, Institutionalized Religion, and Religion That is Not Religion 21

Peter Beyer

2 Counting and Mapping Religious Diversity: Methodological Challenges, Unintended Consequences, and Political Implications 41

Mar Griera

3 Constructing and Deconstructing Religious Diversity: The Measurement of Religious Affiliation in Denmark and New Zealand 63

William Hoverd and Lene Kühle

4 Globally Modern – Dynamically Diverse: How Global Modernity Engenders Dynamic Diversity 83

Andrew Dawson

Part 2

Religious Diversity in Non-modern and Non-western Contexts

Introduction to Part 2 106

5 Religious Diversity and Discourses of Toleration in Classical Antiquity 109

Mar Marcos

6 Managing and Negotiating Asian Religious Unities and Diversities 128

Jorn Borup

7 A Harmonious Plurality of ‘Religious’ Expressions: Theories and Case Studies from the Chinese Practice of (Religious) Diversity 147

Stefania Travagnin

Part 3

Religious Diversity in Societal Contexts

Introduction to Part 3 174

8 Constructing and Representing the New Religious Diversity with Old Classifications: ‘World Religions’ as an Excluding Category in Interreligious Dialogue in Switzerland 179

Martin Baumann and Andreas Tunger-Zanetti

9 He Said, We Said: Religion in the York University Controversy of 2013–2014 208

Paul Bramadat

10 Interfaith Youth in Australia: A Critical Reflection on Religious Diversity, Literacy, and Identity 230

Anna Halafoff

11 Religious Diversity and the News: Critical Issues in the Study of Religion and Media 252
Henrik Reintoft Christensen

12 Law and Religious Diversity: How South African Courts Distinguish Religion, Witchcraft and Culture 272
Marian Burchardt

Conclusion: The Problems of Religious Diversity 295
Lene Kühle

Index 311