

Contents

Acknowledgments	VII
List of Figures and Tables	VIII
Notes on Contributors	X

Introduction 1

- 1 The Hermphrodite of Charing Cross 28
Anita Guerrini
- 2 Galvanic Humans 52
Rob Iliffe
- 3 The Subject as Instrument: Galvanic Experiments, Organic Apparatus and Problems of Calibration 80
Joan Steigerwald
- 4 Shocking Subjects: Human Experiments and the Material Culture of Medical Electricity in Eighteenth-Century England 111
Paola Bertucci
- 5 Pneumatic Chemistry, Self-Experimentation and the Burden of Revolution, 1780–1805 139
Larry Stewart
- 6 Food Fights: Human Experiments in Late Nineteenth-Century Nutrition
Physiology 170
Elizabeth Neswald
- 7 Experimenting with Radium Therapy: In the Laboratory & the Clinic 194
Katherine Zwicker
- 8 Anthropometry, Race, and Eugenic Research: “Measurements of Growing Negro Children” at the Tuskegee Institute, 1932–1944 215
Paul A. Lombardo

- 9 Nazi Human Experiments: The Victims' Perspective and the Post-Second World War Discourse 240
Paul Weindling
- 10 A Eugenics Experiment: Sterilization, Hyperactivity and Degeneration 260
Erika Dyck
- Index 281