

Preface	9
Introduction	11
Recognition and Redistribution in Multinational Federations: Reconcilable Goals, or Unresolvable Tension? Michael Jewkes	13
Part I: Recognition in Multinational Federations	33
1. Non-territorial Jurisdictional Authority: A Radical Possibility in Need of a Critique Helder De Schutter	35
2. Nations, Popular Sovereignty, and Recognition: Challenging the Indivisibility Assumption Genevieve Nootens	57
3. Three Ways to Advance Democratic Practices: Regionalism, Nationalism and Federalism Alain C. Gagnon Jean-François Grégoire	73
4. A Short Note on Language and Identity Antoon Vandeveld	97
5. Recognition and Political Accommodation: from Regionalism to Secessionism - The Catalan Case Ferran Requejo Marc Sanjaume	107
Part II: Redistribution in Multinational Federations	133
6. Federalism, Contractualism and Equality Andrew Shorten	135
7. Federal Distributive Justice: Lessons from Canada Francois Boucher Jocelyn Machure	157
8. Fiscal Federalism and Solidarity: In Search of an Ideal Formula Philippe Van Parijs	183
Part III: Sources of Stability in Multinational Federations	193
9. If You Can't Trust Them, Join Them: Federalism and Trust in Divided Societies David Robichaud	195
10. Federalism as Efficient Justice Jean-François Grégoire Michael Jewkes	215
Index	241