

Introduction	7
Fabrizio Ricciardelli and Andrea Zorzi
1 The Place of Renaissance Italy in the History of Emotions Barbara H. Rosenwein	15
2 The Emotional Language of Justice in Late Medieval Italy Fabrizio Ricciardelli	31
3 The Anxiety of the Republics “Timor” in Italy of the Communes during the 1330s Andrea Zorzi	45
4 Humiliation and the Exercise of Power in the Florentine Contado in the Mid-Fourteenth Century Caro I Lansing	77
5 The Words of Emotion Political Language and Discursive Resources in Lorenzo de Medici’s Lettere (1468-1492) Isabella Lazzarini	91
6 Metaphor, Emotion and the Languages of Politics in Late Medieval Italy A Genoese Lamento of 1473 Serena Ferente	111
7 Debt, Humiliation, and Stress in Fourteenth-Century Lucca and Marseille Daniel Lord Smail	129
8 Renaissance Emotions Hate and disease in European perspective Samuel K. Cohn Jr.	145
9 The Emotive Power of an Evolving Symbol The Idea of the Dome from Kurgan Graves to the Florentine Tempio Israelitico Ori Z. Soltés	171
10 The Emotions of the State A Survey of the Visconti Chancery Language (Mid-Fourteenth-MidFifteenth Centuries) Andrea Gamberini	193
11 Control of Emotions and Comforting Practices before the Scaffold in Medieval and Early Modern Italy (with Some Remarks on Lorenzetti’s Fresco) Gennaro Ferrante	209
12 “Bene Comune e Benessere”	237

The Affective Economy of Communal Life
Stephen J. Milner

Contributors

252