

Preface vii

Acknowledgments xiv

Abbreviations Used in Footnotes and a Note on Citations xv

1 Jean- Jacques Rousseau and the Marvellous in Life 1

- 1 The Power of Prose 1
- 2 Rousseau and Burke 4
- 3 An Elusive System 9
- 4 The Problem of Unity 14
- 5 A Cumulative Process 17
- 6 The Mystery of Federalism 21

2 The Fénelon Problem 26

- 1 The Many Dimensions of Reform 26
- 2 Rousseau and Montesquieu 33
- 3 Markets, Politics and Reform 43
- 4 Rousseau and the Fénelon Problem 47

3 The Division of Labour and the Political Economy of the General Will 51

- 1 Population and Subsistence Goods 51
- 2 Perfectibility, Autonomy and the Idea of a Federal Government 65
- 3 The Social Contract 72
- 4 Gradated Promotion and the General Will 74
- 5 Taxation and Representation 80
- 6 The Federal Dimension of Rousseau's Thought 84

4 The Politics of the Imagination 86

- 1 The Language of Signs 86
- 2 The Origins of the Imagination 93
- 3 The Genealogy of Love 100
- 4 The Imagination and the Social Contract 112

5 Conscience and the Structure of Federal Government 115

- 1 A Simulacrum of Virtue 115
- 2 The Origins of Conscience 118
- 3 The Power of Enchantment 126

6 Rousseau's Legacy 141

- 1 Theodicies and Their Properties 141
- 2 From Metapolitics to Civil Society 149
- 3 Theories of the Political State 156
- 4 Lorenz von Stein 159
- 5 Rudolf von Jhering 163
- 6 The Concept of Sovereignty 166
- 7 Otto von Gierke 168
- 8 Epilogue: the Jean- Jacques Rousseau Problem in Historical

Context 176

Bibliography 179

Index 197

